Letter to the Barony

From the Quill of their Excellencies of Skraeling Althing

Unto the noble populace of the Barony of Skraeling Althing,

Once again, a summer full of events is ahead of us. As do many of you, we love to attend camping events. It gives Us time to really spend getting to know each and every one of you, share a drink and lots of laughs. We find these events really bring a community together.

We are sad that this will be Our last summer as your Baron and Baroness, and we hope that each of you will come out, spend some time with Us and enjoy yourselves at the upcoming events.

This journey as Baron and Baroness has been the best one we have had in our entire SCA careers. This has been in large part to all the assistance and support we have received from you, the Barony. For this we thank you from the bottoms of our hearts.

We wish the Baronial Candidates good luck and all the best in the upcoming question nights and polling, and we look to Their Majesties and the Barony's wisdom in choosing an appropriate successor.

In Service,
Shahid and Catherine
Baron and Baroness of Skraeling Althing

The next Chronicle should go out by the end of September, beginning of October, 2018.

The Joy of Gifting

In the last few years I have had the honour and joy of taking part in both the Trillium Exchange and the Noblesse Largesse programs.

For those who are unfamiliar with these programs, think of them as a giant Secret Santa for arts and science enthusiasts. You sign up to the program of your choice (or both, I've done that!), are paired with someone, usually someone suitable to your art or science skillset, and are given a few months to create them a gift within a $25 budget limit. You can use your "stash" as free materials, but cannot spend more than the limit in actual money.

Those of us who take part obviously enjoy making things. Usually "ALL THE THINGS!" in fact. Most of us are a little the wrong side of over-enthusiastic about making things and want to share that with "EVERYONE"!

But in case you think that you need to be highly skilled, well-known, or anything else, you don't. The simplest of gifts can bring the most amazing of smiles to your recipient's face, when tailored to their persona, clothing, heraldry, and so much more.

I recently had the pleasure of giving someone a set of beads to wear on her Norse garb. The smile that I got when she opened the bag was more of a reward than anything else I could have asked for.

I urge anyone who likes to create to sign up when they can. Take part, feel the joy of sharing your creativity with someone else, and receiving the same in return!

If you are interested, follow the links above to find out more.
